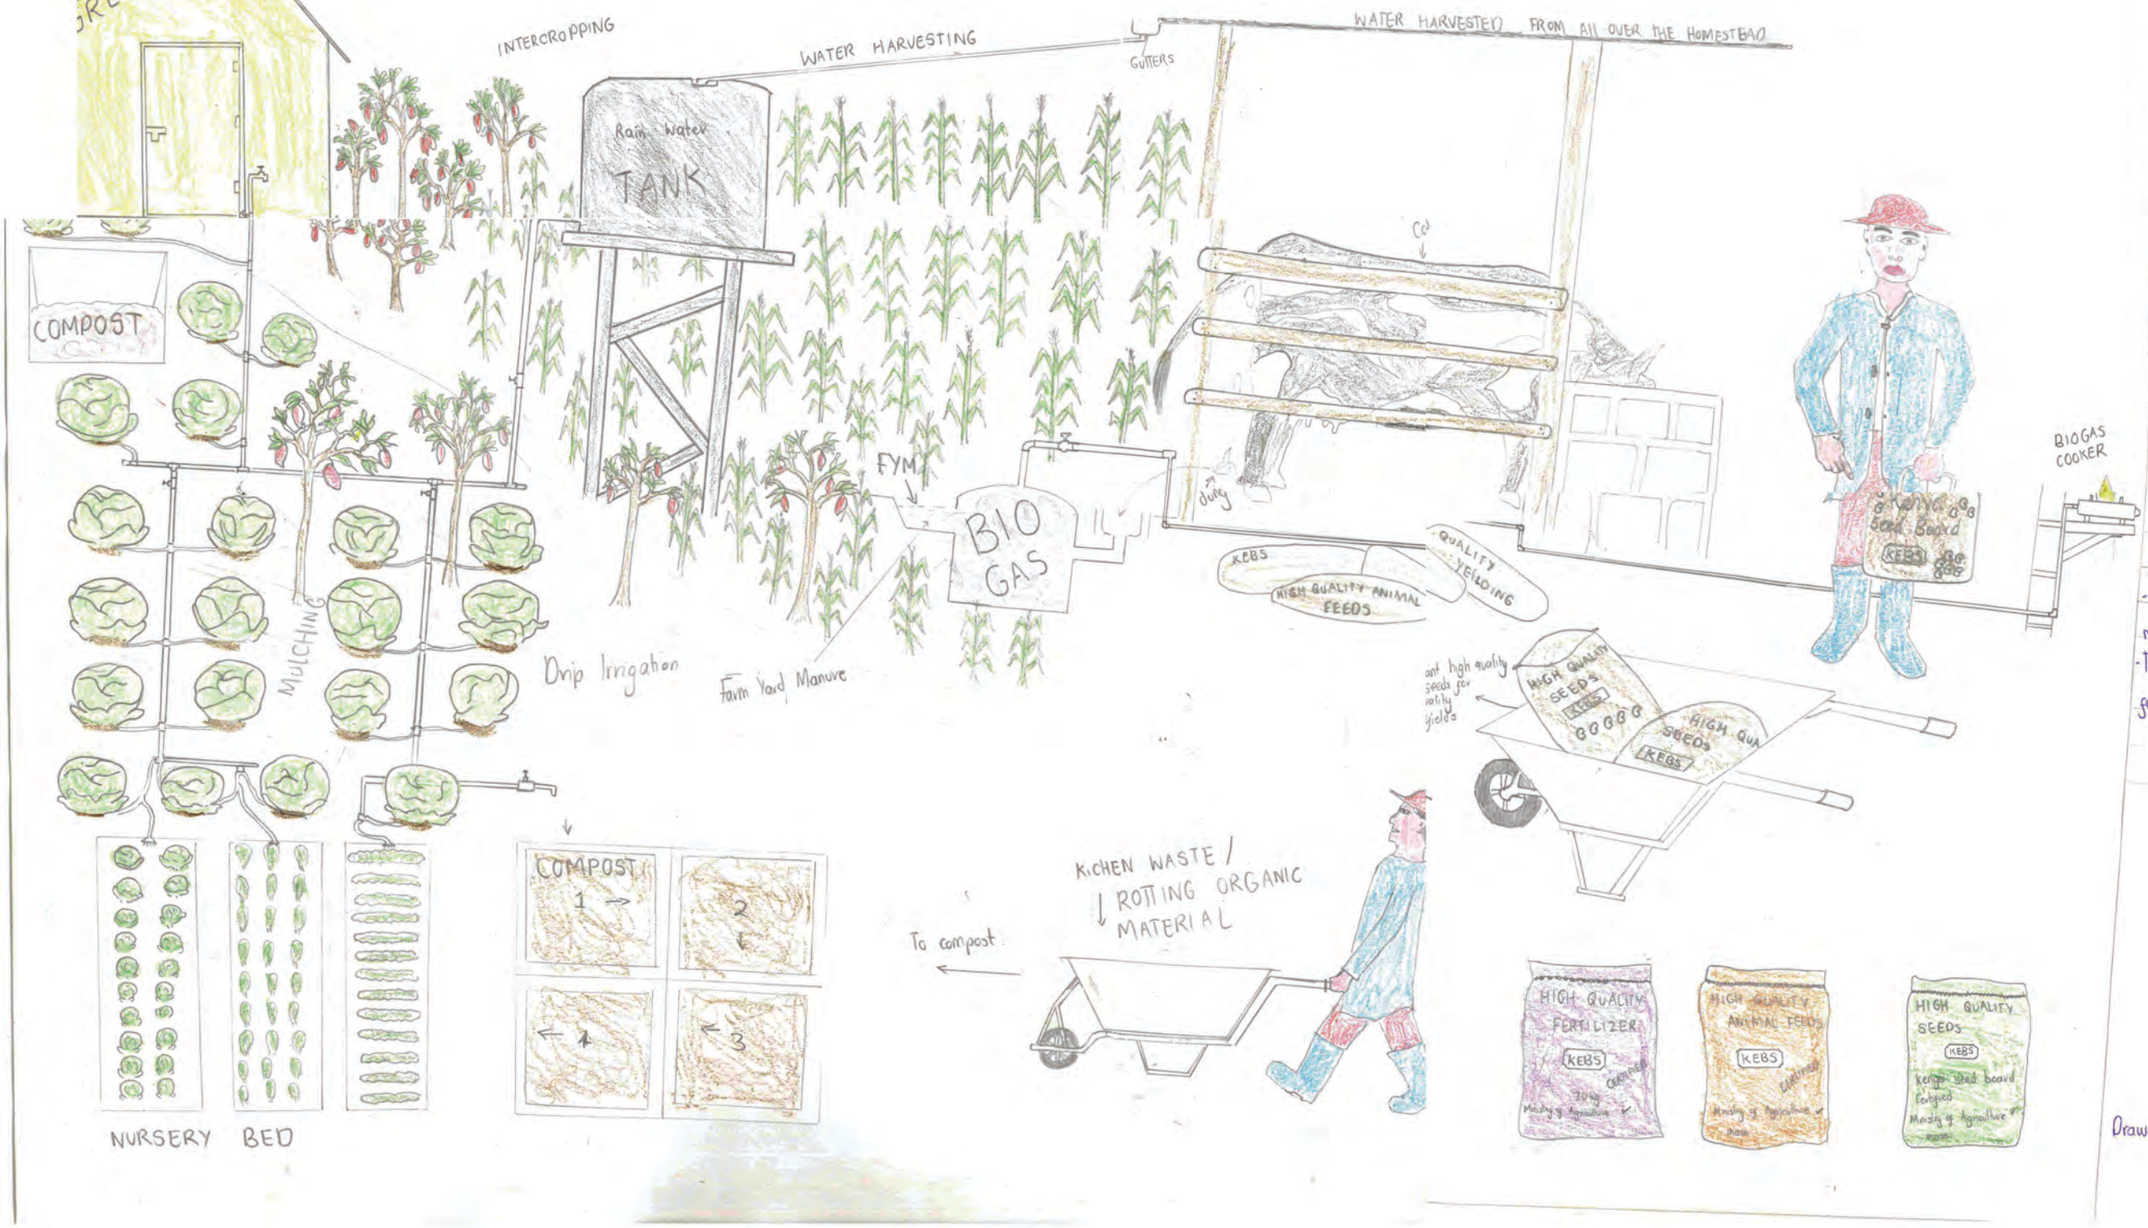
SMART FARMING



SMART FARMING

1. WATER HARVESTING

- The buildings in the farm and the have fitted with gutters and a storage tank or above the ground level.

2. IRRIGATION.

- This is done in dry weather on vegetables cabbages. Drip irrigation should be used to preve excessive water loss and mulch added to mir evaporation.

3. GREEN HOUSE.

- Increases yields on fruit vegetables eg ton pepsicaps, cucumbers etc.

4. INTERCROPPING.

- Growing different crops together eg. Maiz and beans and with trees especially fruit trees.

COMMERCIAL GOODS

- High quality and certified feeds, seeds and fertil should be used for high yeilds and from a certified supplier

LIVESTOCK

- Shauld always be in good health and clec

BIOGAS.

- Dung from livestock can be harnessed to produce biogas for cooking.

MANURE

- Dung from the biogas digester used as farm yard Manure.
- Kitchen waste and other decaying vegeta materials can be used to make compo
- The manure can be used to increase fertility.

Drawn by: — Felix Kamiri Muchiri
c/o Peter Kiarie Waruru
Tel: 0721 767656